NOTE

As it is necessary to begin printing WHO'S WHO in August, in many cases occurrences of a later date are not recorded; deaths reported up to the middle of October have been included, however, in the Obituary.

In view of misunderstandings that sometimes arise it should be pointed out that the statements in regard to children of a marriage should be the number of sons and daughters now living; also, under Clubs it is the practice to print the names of London clubs without the word London at the end, although in the case of clubs elsewhere the name of the towns where they are situated should be given.

It is well to bear in mind that a proof for correction cannot be sent unless there is an address. As any sort of correction, even well-meant attempts to cut down biographies, involves expense, it is requested that no alterations should be made unless absolutely necessary. Corrections must be made on the proofs themselves, and not written out on separate slips of paper.

Any one who has had the Companionage of a British Order conferred on him and has not yet been included is invited to write for a form on which to fill in particulars as to birth, parentage, career, etc., for the next edition.

Is it fair to your best friend to make him your Executor? The duties are onerous, and usually thankless; the responsibilities are great and the penalties for neglect are severe. Moreover, he may die, and the expense of appointing his successor is considerable. On the other hand, if you appoint the Westminster Bank instead, the fees (which are paid out of your estate) will probably be only a fraction of the legacy which you would have left to a private trustee

THE SALVATION ARMY

Within seventy years the Salvation Army has risen from obscurity, ridicule and persecution to appreciation and honour. Its spiritual message and social services are enjoyed by the people of eighty-six countries. Yugoslavia, Tanganyika, French Guiana (Devil's Island) and Uganda were added to the list last year.

Lack of money, certainly not lack of devoted and trained workers, alone hinders The Army's advancement and prevents it, for example, from opening its much-needed nineteenth Eventide Home for aged people in this country and its seventh Leper Colony abroad.

For maintenance of existing work and necessary extensions a total sum of £325,000 from all sources is required at Headquarters yearly.

Reports and full information on application to The Secretary, 101 Queen Victoria Street, London, E.C.4.

Who's Who in the Blind World

AT THE NATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR THE BLIND THERE IS A BLIND WHO'S WHO, CONSTITUTING A RECORD OF THE MANY AND SOMETIMES ASTONISHING ACHIEVEMENTS OF BLIND PEOPLE.

These people have conquered blindness by their own courage and ability, and by making use of the special means devised to assist them.

The National Institute provides these special means. It is the largest publisher of Braille books and periodicals in the world; it supplies apparatus and appliances; it maintains Homes for Blind Babies, a College for Blind Girls, and a School of Massage. In brief, it helps in every possible way the 62,000 blind people of this country to attain independence and success.

Will you please help the Institute's work so that the number of people who, by their achievements, gain a place in the Blind Who's Who may be increased.
